The ash is removed from the copper pyramid before the next ritual is performed and saved for use.

This is a Solar ritual that is associated with Surya, the Sun. The reason I use a Kal Bhairav Image in the artwork for this is to honor Guru Muralie from Om Mahesh Alchemy, he does a special version of Agni Hotra using Kal Bhairav Mantras to remove black magic from people who need healing.

Guru Muralie is an Agori Master, but he is not like the traditional Agori who celebrate the Kumbh Mela Festival in India. Those Agori come from remote mountain locations and walk the streets naked covered in ashes from the cremation ground.

I was fortunate to meet Guru Muralie in 2019, just before Covid started, the help he had given me was much needed. I do not have any products for sale on my website, but Guru had given me a bag of blessed Malas to sell in my country, and if anyone is interested, I still have a few remaining.

He can also arrange for personal readings from the Maha Siddhas living in remote locations in India. For the kind of gifts and abilities that Guru Muralie has, he is a very simple and humble man. I will recommend him strongly to anyone who needs help.

Shungite

So, Agni Hotra is good for purifying and cleansing your body, purifying food and generating positive energies at the home.

However another unseen hazard that we all have in our daily life is the harmful effects of 5G. The one thing that can deflect and shield you from the harmful effects of 5G, is a natural material called Shungite.

This stone is over 1 billion years old and is only found in Russia. There are many stories about who first discovered Shungite. One of the stories goes back to the time of Ivan the terrible.

In 1709, there was a war during the summer time and the water was undrinkable. And he ordered his soldiers to carry Shungite in their bags to purify their drinking water. There is another story about, the injured soldiers who would bathe in the river that had deposits of Shungite, they all healed noticeably faster.

Some Shamans give shungite to clients to protect them from dark spells that were sent to harm them. And some people say that by just by just wearing or holding the stone it helps neutralizes their stress and makes them to feel more calm and focused. The effect is much stronger than black obsidian.

There is the normal Black Shungite and the Elite Shungite, and some of the most common products they make are Shungite cups, Pyramids and small plates and stickers that you can put on your cell phone and wireless routers. There are also raw chunky unpolished pieces that you can use to make a water filter.

So as per usual I urge everyone to do their own research on anything that I present in my videos.

Best of luck to everyone.
